PROBATION ADMINISTRATION UPDATE

Julie Scott, Justice Treatment Systems Specialist, Probation Administration, presented year-end report on the Fee For Service Voucher (Voucher) program. At the end of Fiscal Year (FY) 2009, $244,000 remained of the $3.9 million allotted to the Voucher program. A total of 1,399 clients utilized the Voucher program. This includes: 550 parole participants, 159 Problem-Solving Court participants, and 690 probationers.

Scott then presented the Rules Governing the Fee for Service Voucher Program, Population Served by the Fee for Service Voucher Program, and descriptions of substance-abuse evaluations, outpatient treatment, intensive outpatient treatment, and short-term residential treatment. Registered providers are issued non-monetary vouchers for all court clients.

Deb Minardi, Deputy Probation Administrator for Community Based Supervision, Programming and Services, gave an update on the Remote Recovery Project. The intent of the study is to reduce the barriers in rural communities between supervision and treatment. A draft for implementation will be completed by the end of April 2010. The first phase of implementation will begin in June 2010 and a second phase in the fall of 2010.

Mike Tolley, United States Probation, provided an update on federal probationers accessing services at the Reporting Centers (RC). The probationers are currently accessing cognitive behavioral groups and once outstanding contracts are completed, will access pretreatment groups at RCs.
